66°30: organic skincare with a new angle...

66°30 is the angle of inclination of the Earth with its orbit around the sun and the origin of the seasons.

This symbolic contrast between the force of the universe and the fragility of its equilibrium is reflected in 66°30..

66°30 is also a French brand of sustainable and organic skincare created for today's man, driven by similar forces of strength and vulnerability, confident in the future, yet also aware of the fragile equilibrium of his skin.
